Tony Tripodi Lecture in International Social Work

Global Social Work: Lessons from 15+ Years of Teaching and Applied Research in the Global South and North

Presented by Dr. Fred Ssewamala

Monday April 5, 2021 at 5:00 PM- 6:30 PM ET

Objectives

By attending this lecture, attendees will

- better understand macro and institutional theoretical frameworks for planning, adapting and implementing global social work, social development and public health projects, programs and policies within a global context/global perspective.
- better understand evidence-based family strengthening and economic empowerment interventions that can be used to address the unique social development issues confronting the low-resourced communities in the Global North and the Global South.
- increase their competency and understanding of cultural diversity, values, attitudes, and behaviors that impact global social work and explore how the social work knowledge can be utilized for the development and implementation of appropriate interventions.
- better understand the complex social, economic, political, national and international forces that influence global research and practice.
- Increase their awareness and knowledge about the role of social work in addressing global issues such as poverty, social injustices, and inequality.
